Maggie,

Clean versions attached. If anything needs changing on any of them let me know.

Thanks for your help on this.

Also, I've not forgotten about the emailed comments on our Glyphosate 41% label Container Disposal you sent back last week. I will probably run a revised version incorporating the suggested changes back by you before submitting.

History: This message has been replied to.

Hi Maggie,

Jeanne and I reviewed these and have the following comments and suggestions for these labels.

- This has the three "container type" statements for nonrefillable containers.
- Based on the assumption that this is not a dilutable pesticide (most technical products are not), the regulations do not require a residue removal statement. They can include one, like they did, and it's good that they used a statement from the regs "Triple rinse (or equivalent) promptly after emptying." Again, it is optional for them to include it, but it does seem like a good idea based on the statement "If not triple rinsed, these containers are acute hazardous wastes..." If they do include these instructions to triple rinse the container, it would be good to also include instructions for what to do with the rinsate. The rinsate management instructions from our standard triple rinse instructions are "Pour rinsate into application equipment or a mix tank or store rinsate for later use or disposal." but those don't really work in this situation. Maybe something like "Use rinsate in the pesticide formulation or dispose of in accordance with local, state and federal regulations." or Albaugh can suggest an alternative.
- We recommend that you look through the full label to confirm that this is not dilutable. The definition in §156.3 is: "Dilutable means that the pesticide product's labeling allows or requires the pesticide product to be mixed with a liquid diluent prior to application or use."
- Bottom line: Confirm that the product is not dilutable and add instructions for what to do with the rinsate.

- This has the three "container type" statements for nonrefillable containers.
- Based on the assumption that this is not a dilutable pesticide (most technical products are not), the regulations do not require a residue removal statement. The statement that they included is adapted from the instructions for fiber drums with liners in Chapter 13 of the Label Review Manual and makes sense.
- We recommend that you look at the full label to confirm that this is not dilutable. The definition in §156.3 is: "Dilutable means that the pesticide product's labeling allows or requires the pesticide product to be mixed with a liquid diluent prior to application or use."
- The last sentence in the first full paragraph seems to be missing "must be" in "...the liner may be considered an acute hazardous waste and MUST BE disposed in accordance..."
- Bottom line: Okay as is, after confirming it is not dilutable but recommend the editorial change in the previous bullet.

Let us know if you have any questions about these suggestions.

Hi Nancy-

Thank you so much for your help with these storage and disposal statements! I don't know why I'm having so many issues with them lately.

I attached 3 papers below- the 1st- cover letter explaining why they cannot follow the language in 2007-4

2nd- 2nd page of Bromoxynil label (Reg No 42750-54)

3rd- 2nd page of Propazine label (Reg No 42750-149) - the language is exactly the same with 8 other technical product submissions which came in at the same time.

If you want to see the full labels, just let me know, wasn't sure what was easiest for you.

Thank you!

RE: Label amendments for Container Disposal

Dear Mr. Davis,

The enclosed submissions for the listed registrations are label amendments to revise the Container Disposal text in response to the Agency's rejection letter to previously submitted notifications under PR Notice 2007-4. These registrations are technical products that do not lend themselves to the PR Notice template. Accordingly, we reviewed the Agency's Label Review Manual in addition to the PR Notice for guidance on appropriate language.

These products are not dilutable with water and except for the Bromoxynil Technical, are packaged in large bulk tote bags with plastic liners. Only the liners are left with any residue after emptying and are disposed of according to appropriate regulations for the particular chemical. The Bromoxynil Technical is received in open mouth unlined metal drums which are also disposed of appropriately after emptying.

Dear Mr. Morris:

The Agency is in receipt of your Application for Pesticide Notification under Pesticide Registration Notice (PRN) 2007-4 dated April 12, 2011 for the following products:

Technical Bromoxynil Octanoic Acid
Dicamba Technical
Picloram Acid Technical
Clopyralid Technical
Triclopyr TGA1

Oxyflourfen TGA1
Imazethapyr TGA1
Propazine Technical
Triclopyr 44% TEA MUP
Technical MCPA Acid

The Registration Division (RD) has conducted a review of this request for its applicability under PRN 2007-4 and finds that the action(s) requested does not clearly fall within the scope of PRN 2007-4 and will require additional administrative review of the related files. A summary of our findings include:

1. Language needs to comply with 'Table 3. Recommended Container Handling Statements for Pesticide Products that are Acute Hazardous Waste When Discarded: For non-refillable bags of granular or dry formulation' of the Label Review Manual. (Page 179)

Please be advised that PRNs are provided as guidance; they are not considered regulation by the Agency. Therefore, the RD reserves the right to make the above determination and concludes that this action must be submitted by you as an amendment. No further processing of this action will occur until a resubmission is made. The RD has determined that this action is denied and our records have been updated accordingly.
